Cristian Fernandez

Student at PHINMA Araullo University
Nueva Ecija, Central Luzon, Philippines

Summary

My name is Cristian Fernandez, and I have skills in several areas of technology and design. I know how to build basic websites and have a good eye for graphic design, making sure my websites look great and function well.

I am also very good at fixing computer problems, both hardware and software. I can quickly figure out what's wrong and get things working again, making me a reliable person to have around when technical issues arise.

In addition to my tech skills, I enjoy video and photo editing. I pay close attention to detail and can turn raw footage and images into impressive, polished content. Whether I'm working on videos or photos, I make sure the final product looks professional and engaging.

My personality type is "Prestige," which means I'm committed to doing high-quality work and always aiming for the best results. I take pride in what I do and am always looking to improve my skills and the quality of my work.

Overall, I am a well-rounded professional who brings technical know-how, creative talent, and a strong dedication to quality to every project I work on.
